Order to Debtor

An order for relief having been entered herein pursuant to Title 11 U.S.C. Chapter 7 upon a petition filed by you in the United States Bankruptcy Court; it is ORDERED that,

You shall safely care for, protect and preserve all of your property.

You shall not sell, refinance, transfer, remove, destroy, mutilate or conceal any of your property, and you shall make all or any part thereof available to the trustee, when requested to do so.

You shall not turn over any of your property to any creditor or party in interest without the bankruptcy Trustee's knowledge and consent, unless so ordered by the United States Bankruptcy Court.

You shall preserve all recorded information, including books, documents, records and papers, from which your financial condition or business transactions might be ascertained and make the same available to the United States Bankruptcy Court and/ or the Trustee when requested to do so.

You shall cooperate with the Trustee as is necessary to enable the Trustee to perform the Trustee's duties as required by law.

You shall make available and turn over to the Trustee any property that you acquire or become entitled to acquire within 180 days after the date of the filing of your bankruptcy petition, if such property or your rights to acquire such property is by bequest, devise or inheritance; or by the terms or provisions of a property settlement agreement with your spouse or by any divorce decree; or as a beneficiary of a life insurance policy or of a death benefit plan.

At least 7 days before the first scheduled meeting of creditors, you shall provide to the trustee: (A) a copy of your federal tax return, including any attachments, for the most recent tax year ending immediately before your petition filing date and for which a return was filed, a transcript of such tax return, or a written statement that the documentation does not exist; and (B) all payment advices or other evidence of payment received within 60 days before the petition filing date from your employer. Not later than the meeting of creditors, you also shall provide to the trustee: statements for each of your depository and investments accounts, including checking, savings, money market, mutual funds, and brokerage accounts, for the period that includes your petition filing date, or a written statement that the documentation either does not exist or is not in your possession. The Court may dismiss your case if such documentation is not provided.

You shall personally appear at a meeting of creditors on the date and time and at the place set by the U. S. Trustee as set forth in a notice which you have or will soon receive. That meeting may be adjourned and subsequently reconvened by the Trustee and, if so, you shall appear on the date and time scheduled.

At the Trustee's request, you shall make all reasonable efforts to provide the Trustee with your homestead deed, if any, and any and all deeds to real property, as well as documentation evidencing the liens on all of your encumbered assets and any other documentation requested by the Trustee. You shall promptly file any and all necessary amendments, modifications or clarifications to any schedules or statements as requested by the Trustee.

Before your case is closed, you shall immediately advise the Court and the Trustee, in writing, of any change of your address. You are advised that it is your responsibility to review any returned mail which needs a corrected address.

You shall obey all orders of the United States Bankruptcy Court and your responsibility for doing so does not cease even after a discharge is granted. The discharge does not conclude your bankruptcy case. A discharge may be revoked, for cause.
